Sentence: 'Let anyone who is thirsty come to me,' says the Lord; 'and let the one who believes in me drink. For out of your heart shall flow rivers of living water. 'John 7:38

Collect. Father,
you have filled your people with the Spirit who rested first on your Son and united us in your Church;
open the channels for your Spirit
that we may freely work together,
and your kingdom and your rule increase;
for the glory of your holy name.

Amen.

Prayers this week

Taken from, Together we Pray, Anglican Movement, Wellington , Diocese

Let us pray for the church and the world, giving thanks for the coming of the Spirit.

Eternal God, living flame, you rush like the wind in the hearts of your people. In the power of the Spirit, help us understand one another, that our words may be honest and loving. Holy Spirit, fall on us as it did the first disciples, no longer silenced or contained. Break down walls that keep us apart, so we may proclaim peace to a frightened world and love's promise to all in need of justice.

We give thanks for Aotearoa and its beauty. Help us all those working to protect the land, seas, and people here. At Pentecost, we pray for +Justin our bishop and the parishes of Wellington; for people of all faiths, and those who struggle to believe. We pray for the homeless, those living in temporary accommodation, and all affected by heavy rains. We pray for the safety of schoolchildren. Gentle God, in this imperfect world, be with those grieving the loss of a loved one. Send your Spirit to those weary of life's changes, and in need of a friend. Remind us we are your hands and your presence now. 'May God kindle in us the fire of love to bring us alive and give warmth to the world'. (nzpb).

O God of many names, lover of all peoples, we pray for peace in our homes, nations, and world, and for an end to war. We pray for peace in Ukraine, Sudan, and for the victims of floods in the Congo. We think of all involved in rescuing others or bringing medicine, and in danger themselves. Jesus, our friend and brother, even when we turn from you, lost or hurt, out of love you cannot stay away. May we sense the Spirit finding a way in the flowing air. We pray for healing after loss; for joy after sadness; for rebuilding after destruction. So may we live, believing, praying, through our lives hope and help in whatever ways they can. So may we build God's kingdom on earth, and plant a garden, on the land and in our hearts.

God of grace hear our prayer. Amen

Refugee House Collection

Refugee families regularly arrive in Wellington (organised by New Zealand Red Cross) with no household belongings. The Catholic and Anglican Dioceses have taken the responsibility of supplying household goods of each family. The generosity of Parishioners from both churches has been absolutely amazing over the years. St James' and All Saints' generosity for our last collection in 2021, was very much appreciated.

The Diocese has approached Lower Hutt Anglicans (St James and All Saints), giving us the opportunity to collect the basic household goods for a new family of five, arriving in Wellington in approximately one month. Our list includes kitchen, pantry, bedding, linen, electrical items.

The list of items we need to collect by 18 June are at the back of the Church, please put your name beside an item.

If each family donated one item we would soon have the required list completed.

Donations of money are very welcome so we can purchase as many new items as possible. Please deposit into the St James bank account BNZ 02 0528 0045901 00 reference 'Refugee House', or place a donation in an envelope marked 'Refugee house' through the Sunday collection plate. Can't get to Church, a donation could be an option for you.

Please give generously to this humanitarian project, to show that St James and All Saints are committed to making a better life for a new New Zealand family. If you have any queries please contact Margaret.

Thank you
