Prayers this week

Sing to the Lord a new song
For he has done marvellous things.

Risen Lord, in the early morning freshness, with spices to anoint, three friends approached your empty tomb.

May your Easter rising continue to surprise your Church with new life and hope ...

Shape us as witnesses of your grace and power.

Risen Lord, news of your rising was greeted with alarm and fear.
Free us from all that shrouds your people in death and despair ...

Set our hearts at peace with thanksgiving.

Risen Lord, your appearing changed lives and made witnesses from broken people.

Give hope to all who seek your transforming love ...

Form us in your grace and likeness.

Risen Lord, you make the day dawn with promise.

Raise the spirits of all who are ill ...
Strengthen and uphold them in your life and love.

Risen Lord, in your rising we see salvation.

Draw to yourself all who have died ...
Wipe away tears from our eyes that we may rejoice and be glad in you.

Amen

Many thanks to our volunteers!

We would like to thank our many volunteers for contributing their time and mahi the past 7 days.

It takes many hands to prepare spaces and put worship services together, so to put on a service every day this week is a monumental achievement.

We hope that our volunteers receive some deserved rest after giving the parish so much.

Keep our guests and visitors in your prayers this week, that by coming to our services they encountered Jesus.

Vicar on leave 1-7 April
